

BEST OF SOUTH & NORTH ICELAND - WINTER ITINERARY

DAY 1

DAY 1: ARRIVAL IN REYKJAVÍK

On arrival to Keflavik International Airport, you will be greeted by a professional driver who will take you to your accommodation in Reykjavík. After settling in, the rest of the day is free for you to explore Reykjavik. You can stroll the streets of the charming capital city, visit museums, and explore landmarks like Hallgrímskirkja and the Sun Voyager. For the evening, downtown Reykjavík offers numerous excellent restaurants, cafés, coffeehouses, and bars, for those who want to experience the renowned Reykjavík nightlife.

Attractions: Reykjavík

DAY 2

DAY 2: THE CLASSIC GOLDEN CIRCLE

Today you will visit some of Iceland's most famous attractions with a guided personal small group tour of the classic "Golden Circle" route in South Iceland. One of the many highlights on this journey is Þingvellir National Park, a place of great historical and geological significance that is also listed as a UNESCO World Heritage site. Þingvellir is the site of the country's first parliament and is located along the edge of the great rift created by the drifting of the Eurasian and American tectonic plates. Other attractions include the beautiful two-tiered Gullfoss waterfall and the spouting hot springs of Geysir. While Geysir lies dormant, its neighbour Strokkur erupts every few minutes, gushing steam and water from the bowels of the earth. A taste of Icelandic food and drink is included during the tour. On return to Reykjavik, you will see the beautiful waterfall Faxi.

Spend the night in Reykjavik

Attractions: Geysir, Gullfoss, Þingvellir

DAY 3

DAY 3: JOURNEY TO THE NORTH & HUNTING NORTHERN LIGHTS

The day begins with a short flight to Akureyri, where you will spend the next two nights. Akureyri, the unofficial capital of north Iceland, offers so much to do and see. You can take a stroll through the town centre and enjoy the variety of little shops, cafes and museums, as well as the botanical gardens and a thriving harbour. A visit to Akureyri's swimming pool is highly recommended, where you can relax in the heated pool and enjoy a soothing hot tub.

In the evening, enjoy a guided northern lights tour, where a knowledgeable driver will search for the best places to view the aurora. Please note that northern lights are a natural phenomenon and sightings cannot be guaranteed.

DAY 6: THE SCENIC SOUTH COAST - WATERFALLS & BLACK SAND BEACHES

Enjoy a guided small group tour along the striking south coast of Iceland. The tour starts with the picturesque Seljalandsfoss waterfall, which is 40-metres high and its main attraction, besides the scenery, is the pathway leading behind the waterfall, giving visitors a chance to view the falls from within. Next up is a view of the vast glacier Sólheimajökull before continuing to Reynisfjara, a hauntingly beautiful black sand beach. The last stop before heading back to Reykjavik is the graceful, 60-metre high Skógafoss waterfall to enjoy the beautiful surroundings and pose for the perfect picture.

Spend the night in Reykjavik.
