Today you will collect your rental car and head to the striking south coast of Iceland. Make way to the picturesque Seljalandsfoss waterfall, which is 40-metres high and its main attraction, besides the scenery, is the pathway leading behind the waterfall, giving visitors a chance to view the falls from within. Next up is a visit to the equally impressive Skógafoss waterfall before continuing to Reynisfjara*, a hauntingly beautiful black sand beach.

Caution should always be exercised when visiting Reynisfjara beach near Vík due to powerful rogue/sneaker waves and the strong undertow current. Always stay far back from the water's edge and read the warning sign before walking on the beach.*
